Incentives & Competitions

Sponsor contests that revolve around your campaign effort and offer incentives / prizes to contributors. These are examples of ideas that have been used successfully by other organizations.

Targeted “Status” Incentives

It's always a good idea to target which individuals you want to reach.

Who do you want to reach?

- Non-contributors
- All contributors
- Contributors giving at different levels
- Contributors who increase their gifts
- Employees who return pledge forms by a certain date

How do you reach them?

During your campaign you can give employees extra incentives based upon their status, i.e.:

- For a returned pledge form - 1 drawing ticket
- For a new contributor - 1 drawing ticket
- For an increased gift - 1 drawing ticket
- Individual incentives – departments, divisions or “teams” of employees compete for top results and a group prize

Additional Incentive Ideas

- “The Gift of Time” - ½ day or day off with pay (many variations)
- Raffle off the boss. Employees increasing their pledge or a new pledge receives a chance to win the boss and have him/her perform their job for one hour
- Senior executive wears the same tie for one week. As company approaches its goal, the tie gets shorter each day to mark campaign progress
- Challenge between departments based on % participation or % increase in giving or average gift
- Gift for department coordinator who delivers best results

Success Tip: Using your company logo along with the United Way logo on selected items helps create the team spirit for your company, as well as the campaign (Note: Please consult your company's Communication Department and your United Way staff representative for graphic standards of your company's and United Way's logo).

FUNdraising Do's and Don'ts

Decide that this is the year to have fun by using special events and other creative activities in your organization's campaign. Special events are FUN and are an excellent method of raising United Way awareness in your office. Review the guidelines listed below, discuss your plan with your United Way campaign representative and go for it.

DO

- DO check out your ideas with your CEO.
- DO something different to bring interest to your campaign.
- DO solicit services and/or items from your co-workers.
- DO use a special event to focus attention on the campaign—not as the total campaign effort.
- DO use special events as frosting on the cake—to help you meet and exceed your “stretch” goal.
- DO tie special events, where appropriate, to completed pledge cards...and encourage the use of payroll deduction.

DON'T

- DON'T surprise your boss with a golf tournament on company time!
- DON'T do “the same old thing.”
- DON'T overlook the tried and true elements of a successful campaign (e.g., person-to person contact, etc.).
- DON'T forget your well-planned employee solicitation campaign.
